They have also tasted cakes, cookies, and Halloween candy. Finally, the students have decorated their class and corridors.

REFLECTION OF THE WEEK:

"Autumn, the year's last, loveliest smile."

~ William Cullen Bryant
(American Poet)

REFLEXION DE LA SEMANA:

"El otoño, la última sonrisa del año,
la más bella."

~ William Cullen Bryant
(American Poet)

The quote for reflexion week came from the American Poet, William Cullen Bryant. In this quote, Bryant captures the feelings that many people associate with the autumn season. Since Autumn is full of bright colors, seasonal food, and mild weather, many people enjoy it more than Winter. Therefore, Bryant refers to this season as the year's last, loveliest smile. As you can see, this quote is very short and simple, but it has a powerful and lasting impression. Sometimes you don't need many words to convey an important idea.
